THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA)

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) is landmark federal legislation that opens up services and employment opportunities to the millions of Americans with disabilities. The ADA affects access to employment; state and local government programs and services; transportation, and access to places of public accommodation such as businesses, non-profit service providers; and telecommunications.

The Arc Mercer ADA COMMITMENT AND COMPLIANCE

The Arc Mercer is committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in or denied the benefits of its services on the basis on their disability as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act.

The Arc Mercer management, and all supervisors and employees share direct responsibility for carrying out The Arc Mercer commitment to the ADA. The Arc Mercer Facilities Department ensures accountability in this commitment, and supports all parts of the organization in meeting their respective ADA obligations. The Facilities Department coordinates internally with all appropriate offices in the investigation of complaints of discrimination, and takes a lead role in responding to requests for information about The Arc Mercer civil rights obligations and operations.

ADA Complaints

If you wish to file an ADA complaint of discrimination with The Arc Mercer), please contact The Arc Mercer via 609-406-0181 or 180 Ewingville Rd, Ewing, NJ 08638, or use our online form.

What Happens to my ADA Complaint of Discrimination to The Arc Mercer?

All ADA complaints of discrimination received by The Arc Mercer are routed to local area management for prompt investigation and resolution. All complaints received will be investigated, so long as the complaint is received within 180 days from the date of the alleged discrimination. The Arc Mercer will provide appropriate assistance (online and otherwise) to complainants who are limited in their ability to communicate in English or require accommodation. Complainants will be requested to leave contact information for follow-up about their complaints.

The Arc Mercer aims to complete investigations into all complaints received, within 90 days of receipt. In instances where additional information is needed to complete an investigation, the investigator will contact the complainant using the contact information provided. Failure of the complainant to provide contact information or any requested additional information may result in a delay in resolution, or the administrative closure of the complaint. The Arc Mercer has a zero tolerance policy on discrimination and will take appropriate corrective measures in all instances where a violation of The Arc Mercer non-discrimination policy has been established.

Once a complaint investigation is complete, complainants will receive a notice of finding via their preferred/available mode of contact (phone, E-mail, U.S. post, etc.). If no contact information is provided, a note regarding the outcome of the investigation will be saved on file for a minimum of three years. Complainants can contact The Arc Mercer Customer Service at any time to check on the status of their complaint.
